E Numb. 137.

The Daily Courant.

Friday, September 25. 1702.

From the Amſterdam Courant, Dated Sept. 26.

Vienna, Sept. 13.

ORder is given for 6000 Croatians to march under General Heuſler to reinforce the Army in Italy. Yeſterday in the Afternoon an Expreſs brought Advice that the Elector of Bavaria had taken Ulm.

Ratisbon, Sept. 18. This day it was reſolv'd in the 3 Colleges of the Empire by Majority of Votes, to declare War againſt France & the Duke of Anjou.

From the Leyden Gaeztte, Dated Sept. 28.

Briſach, Sept. 17. Three Couriers have been ſtopp'd between Waldſhut and Rhinfelde, one of which was ſent by the Marſhal de Catinat to the Elector of Bavaria, and the other two from that Elector to Marſhal Catinat. Theſe 3 Couriers being carry'd to Rhinfelde, and their Letters being opened, it was found that the Elector of Bavaria had a deſign to march into the Briſgow with 10000 Men, and to poſt himſelf on the Rhine near Hunnighen. Theſe Letters were immediately ſent by an Expreſs to the K. of the Romans; and in the mean time all the Avenues of the Country are ſecur'd.

Ratisbon, Sept. 19. The Reſolution of the Diet touching the Infraction of the Peace by the Elector of Bavaria in ſeiſing on Ulm, having been deliver'd in writing to Cardinal Lemberg the Emperor's Commiſſioner, in which his Majeſty is deſir'd to proceed againſt that Prince according to the Conſtitutions of the Empire, The Cardinal has ſent it away by 2 Expreſſes, to the Emperor and to the King of the Romans. 'Tis advis'd that the Elector of Bavaria has given the Circles of Swabia and Franconia to underſtand, that he will give them no reſt till they have accepted the Neutrality, foraſmuch as the War in which the Emperor is engag'd, does not concern the Empire, but only the Houſe of Auſtrai. The Envoy of Bavaria has proteſted againſt the Reſolution of the Diet to declare War againſt France.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 26.

Frankfort, Sept. 20. The Duke of Wirtemberg is gone in haſte from the Army to Stutgard with his own Battalion of Grenadiers, 4 Battalions of Troops of the Circle of Swabia are likewiſe march'd toward Eſſingen, and will be follow'd by all the Regiments of Swabia and Franconia, to cover thoſe two Circles from the further Attempts of the Elector of Bavaria.

Berlin, Sept. 19. 'Tis reported that the Elector of Bavaria has acquainted the Imperial Court that he intends to take upon him the Title of King of Bavaria and Swabia; but this requires Confirmation.

From the Paris Gazette a la Main, Dated Sept. 22.

Paris, Sept. 22. We are aſſur'd that the Patent of Vicar General of the Spaniſh Netherlands which was paſs'd in the Name of the Duke of Burgundy, has been chang'd ſince the Duke return'd to Court in favour of the Elector of Bavaria, and 'tis pretended that he forbore to declare himſelf till this was done, Monſieur de Villars with a Detachment from Marſhal Catinat's Army is march'd to joyn him, which will increaſe the Elector's Army to 30000 Men. The New Levys for the Armys of France both by Sea and Land are to be compleated by the end of February next, and will amount to 68000 Foot and 10000 Horſe.

From the Paris Gazette a la main, Dated Sept. 25.

Private Letters from the Army in Italy Adviſe, that the King of Spain would ſet out for Madrid on the 20th by Land, he will take his way by Turin, Provence, Languedoc, and Catalonia: and Orders are given for the Neceſſary Preparations on the Roads. Notwithſtanding the Germans have ſtop'd ſeveral Couriers from the Elector of Bavaria, that were coming to France, yet we learn that his Troops have ſeiz'd on Kirchberg on the River Iler which falls into the Danube a little below Ulm, and of Biberach an Imperial Town on the other ſide of Ulm on the South-ſide of the Danube; 'tis advis'd likewiſe that he has poſſeſs'd himſelf of Eſſeling, Studgard, and Tubingen, all ſituated on the Neckar, and are the Chief Towns that belong to the Duke of Wirtemberg; but we muſt wait for the Confirmation of the taking of theſe 3 laſt Places.

From the Paris Gazette, Dated Sept. 23.

They write from Strasburg of the 15th, that the Elector of Bavaria having taken Ulm, would continue his March towards the Rhine,

The Hague News Letter of Sept. 26. ſays, That the Elector of Bavaria demanded of the Emperor 4 or 5 Millions of Livres yearly, and to have one Quarter always advanc'd to him, on which terms he would ſide with his Imperial Majeſty; but that the Emperor being ſhort of Money deſir'd that the States would Advance it, who excus'd themſelves; whereupon that Prince concluded a Treaty with the King of France on the 17th of laſt Month.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 26.

Heidelberg, Sept. 19. The Army under Prince Lewis of Baden is at Kroon Weyſſenberg, 'tis ſaid they will march to Haguenau, and throw up a Line from that place to Fort Saint Louis, which latter they will ſhortly Bombard, and Block up in Winter.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 28.

Vienna, Sept. 16. The Reſident of Bavaria is forbid coming to Court by Count Martinits. Mr. Stepney the Engliſh Envoy has receiv'd Orders to return home, and my Lord Paget is to reſide here in his Room till further Order from the Queen.

Heydelberg, Sept. 19. 'Tis reported here that the Elector of Bavaria has taken Bibrach, and is march'd towards Lindau, and juſt now we hear that he has ſat down before ſome place in the Dutchy of Wirtemberg within 3 Miles of Stutgard.

Frankfort, Sept. 24. Several Battaillons of Foot and Regiments of Horſe have paſſed the Rhine, to march towards Eſſingen and Swabia to make head againſt the Bavarians, the Bavarian General Arco with 10 or 12000 Men is advancing towards the Upper Rhine. Ulm is garriſon'd with 3000 Foot and 600 Dragoons, the Elector himſelf is within a League of that City at Offenhauſen. Prince Lewis of Baden is march'd from the Army at Croon Weyſſenburg with 15000 Men higher up, laſt Thurſday we heard great ſhooting, and therefore believe that he has begun to Bombard Fort St. Louis.

Naples, Sept. 6. The French Galleys that lay in this Port are gone back to Marſeilles.

Dorpt,

From the Amſterdam Courant, Dated Sept. 28.

Dorpt, Sept, 6. We are apprehenſive of this Place and Nerva's being beſieg'd, the Czar himſelf being come to Pleskow where there are 50000 Men, and 3000 at Novogrod, The Muſcovites have ſtorm'd Marienbourg twice, but to no purpoſe, loſing 1500 Men, ſo they are drawn off from before it.

Cracow, Sept. 9. The Sweeds are ſtill in their former Camp.

From the Amſterdam Courant, Dated Sept. 26.

Hamburg, Sept. 22. 'Tis advis'd from Warſaw that the Saxon Forces conſiſting of 17 Regiments of Foot and 12 of Horſe, were come into the Neighbourhood of that place, and would paſs the Viſtula to march into Lithuania or Pruſſia, leaving 1000 Men behind for the defence of Warſaw.

Dantzick, Sept. 16, We hear that ſome Pruſſian Troops that are drawn together near Elbing are to march into Courland. The K. of Pol. is with his Troops near Warſaw, and has detach'd ſome of his Horſe to Lithuania, where they are joyn'd by 5 Regiments of Muſcovite Horſe.

Amſterdam, Sept. 25. The laſt Letters from Riga ſay, that the greateſt part of the Muſcovite Army was within 12 or 14 Miles of that City, and that a Strong Detachment had paſs'd the Duna near Kokenhuyſen to joyn the Poliſh Army.

From the Harlem Courant, Dated Sept. 26.

From the Camp before Venlo, Sept. 22. Our Army being drawn out this Evening to give 3 general Salvoes for the taking of Landau, the Beſieged apprehended that we were making ready to give a General Aſſault; and after the firſt diſcharge of our Cannon Mortars and Small-ſhot, beat a Parley, which we did not heed; but after the 2d diſcharge they beat agen in 3 places on the Wall, and deſir'd to Capitulate: whereupon two Officers were ſent into the Town to treat with them.

From the Amſterdam Courant, Dated Sept. 30.

Amſterdam, Sept. 29. Letters from Paris ſay that the King had order'd ſeveral light Veſſels to take in good ſtore of Proviſions and go in queſt of the Plate Fleet, that they may have timely Notice what Courſe to ſteer: mean time 'tis given out, that that Fleet is ſail'd under the Convoy of Count Chateauregnault for Placentia, and that they will not come away from thence till towards the end of the Year.

Maeſtricht, Sept. 27. Both Armys lye in their former poſts, but 'tis ſaid that the Confederates will move nearer to the French, who by reaſon of their Detachments are but 25000 ſtrong, but French and Swiſs Troops joyn them daily from Brabant. Count Tallard is advanc'd from Stavelo to St. Vit and will go on to Germany. The Garriſon that march'd out of Venlo were 1200 Men, moſt of the Regiment of Wrangel entring themſelves into the Service of the Dutch, there were but 20 Houſes and 1 Cloyſter burnt in the Town by the Bombs that were flung in. In the Town was found 160 Pieces of Cannon and 30 Mortars, and in the Caſtle 28 Cannon and 2 Mortars; 1200 Heſſe-Caſſelers are arriv'd at Cleves and will march forward to join the Army.

Liege, Sept. 26. All the Veſſels on the Maes between Viſer and Huy are taken up by order of Prince Tſerlaes of Tilly; and a great number of Waggons are order'd hither out of the Country of Namur: from which we conjecture that the French intend to ſend away their Magazines from this place to Namur, (the more becauſe 2 Ships are already ſent thither with Bombs) in caſe the Allies ſhould offer to attack this City.

From the Leiden Gazette, Dated Sept. 28.

Letters from Cologne of the 26th ſay that the Deputies of the Circle of Weſtphalia were aſſembled in that City, and had declar'd unanimouſly for the Emperor, and reſolv'd to raiſe 10000 Men.
